

YOUR PRIVACY IS IMPORTANT TO HEALING OUR HOMELAND

Healing our Homeland uses its best efforts to respect the privacy of every individual who visits our website. As such, we have developed a rigorous privacy policy that reflects that respect. This notice explains our offline and online information privacy practices. Because your privacy is important to us, we provide you with notice and choices about the collection and use of your information.

On our website, we do not collect personally identifiable information from you unless you provide it to us voluntarily and knowingly. This means we do not require you to register or provide information to us in order to view our site.

Healing our Homeland only gathers personally identifiable data—such as names, postal addresses, email addresses, contact information, credit card information or other information—when you voluntarily submit it. This information is used solely by Healing our Homeland for internal purposes. Healing our Homeland lists are never sold to third parties. We will only share personally identifiable information with third parties when:

- The person submitting the information authorizes us to share it;
- Sharing the information is a necessary operation of the site, for instance, to process a credit card transaction; or
- We are required to by law.

This notice applies to all information collected from or submitted to the Healing our Homeland website located at HealingOurHomeland.org and all related sub-domains. By visiting Healing our Homeland website, you accept the practices described in this privacy policy.

THE INFORMATION WE COLLECT

Healing our Homeland does not automatically collect your personally identifiable information when your visit our website.

You do not have to provide any personal information on our website unless you choose to do so. Healing our Homeland only gathers personal information—such as your name, postal address, e-mail address, contact information, credit card information or other information—only when you voluntarily submit it in an online form. If you make a donation online, personal information will be collected from you in order to process that donation.

HOW WE USE INFORMATION

Healing our Homeland is the sole owner of any information collected on this site. Healing our Homeland does not sell personal information about its website users or its donors. The personal information you provide us when using our website or by other means—such as your name, postal address, e-mail address, contact information, credit card information or other information—will be kept strictly confidential and used to support your customer relationship with Healing our Homeland, as well as to notify you of updated information. If you allow us to, we will use personal information that you submit in an online or offline form to place you on our mailing list for regular updates. If you do not wish to receive such mailings from Healing our Homeland, you will have the opportunity at any time to request removal from future mailings by contacting us at help@HealingourHomeland.org. Also, if you allow us to, we will use your e-mail address that you submit in an online form to place you on our e-mail list. If you do not wish to receive e-mails from Healing our Homeland, you will have the opportunity at any time to request removal from future e-mail by unsubscribing from the e-mail list.

PERSONAL INFORMATION AND CREDIT CARD SECURITY

Healing our Homeland cares about the safety and security of your transaction, and we take every precaution to protect your information.

Donations made on our website are secure to the fullest extent possible. Companies we work with to process credit card transactions also use high grade encryption and security protocols.

You can recognize secure website pages by checking for the secure symbol at the bottom of your browser screen. For most browsers, this symbol is either a lock or a key. When the lock symbol appears to be locked, the page is secure. When it appears to be unlocked, the page is insecure.

Furthermore, this site has security measures in place to protect the loss, misuse, and alteration of the information under our control.

LINKS TO THIRD PARTIES

This site contains links to other websites. By clicking on any of these links, you are leaving our site. We have no control over the information collected from or about you by any third party after you have left the site. This Privacy Policy does not cover the data collection and use practices of any third party that is linked within our site. We assume no liability and are not responsible for any practices of such third-party websites, including their privacy practices or content.

Our site facilitates access to certain social networking websites and other websites or services with user-generated content features. The other website's privacy policy applies to any personal information you provide to that website.

PRIVACY POLICY CHANGES

If our information practices change at some time in the future, we will post the policy changes to our website to notify you of these changes and provide you with the ability to opt out of these new uses. If you are concerned about how your information is used, you should regularly review this privacy policy section of our website.

Any changes to this policy will be posted prior to their implementation.
